

Relationship Property Solicitor

Meares Williams is a medium-sized Christchurch law firm with satellite offices in Rolleston and Lincoln. We have a large client base and a reputation for providing quality legal services to a broad range of commercial and private clients.

We offer an excellent opportunity to work directly with clients on interesting and challenging issues with the full support of partners who are well established and have long-standing client relationships in place.

Working in our Merivale and Rolleston offices we are looking for someone motivated and can hit the ground running who is looking for an opportunity to succeed in a supportive and friendly working environment. You will have experience in relationship property with a sound knowledge of contracting out and separation agreements.

This role supports our Relationship Property partner, Belinda Ferguson, and will provide cover while she is on leave.

We welcome candidates with partnership aspirations as this is a growing practice within our firm. We also welcome candidates who would be interested in a part-time role.

We have a pleasant working environment with an open-door policy. We have regular social gatherings and are inclusive.

If you are interested in applying for this position, please submit your CV with covering letter to Gill Kennedy at gill.kennedy@meareswilliams.co.nz.
